Testimonials:

"It [this trip] has opened my heart a lot more spiritually and made me a more open person in general."

"[I have learned] to have more patience."

"[One highlight was] spending time with the partner church (who we met for the first time) and seeing how God is working through the Tarahumara ministry."

"We went to bless others and were blessed in return."

"I have a new understanding of Mexico and its people."

"[One highlight was] being able to help out in ways that were not even on the 'project list.'"
