The information you provide on this reference form is important. Applicants accepted to travel on an international trip will face significant challenges personally, spiritually, socially and culturally. Therefore, we need to have a complete picture of the applicant's strengths and weaknesses. Do not be afraid to be honest; weaknesses or negative information does not necessarily mean the person will be disqualified. We may follow up with you if we need further clarification in order to make the best choice for the applicant and the team. Thank you for your help.

What is your relationship to the applicant?

How long and well have you known the applicant?

How does the applicant get along and work with others?
